

THE DAY'S RACES.

Some Splendid Contests That Were Greatly Enjoyed.

It was rainy yesterday and the track was a little heavy, but the races were up to the standard of excellence that has characterized Previous to the regular race a trotting race between Billy Wilkes and Taffy was put on. It was mile heats. Billy Wilkes won the two first heats easily. The purse was $100.

Following this was the Piedmont colt races for one and two-year-olds.

In the yearling class, trotting, Violet won two straight mile heats. She was entered and owned by the Oak Lawn stock farm.

In the race for two-year-olds, Lena Wilkes won, winning two straights. Lena Wilkes was entered by Forest View farm.

Today at 10 o'clock the Georgia colt races for one, two and four-year-olds will be run.

A BEAUTIFUL RACE.

The first of the regular races was a seven-eighth heat race.

Three starters came to the post, El Praetor,
Ban Adonia and Mollie B.

On the first heat Mollie B. and El Praetor sold favorites, with few takers on Ban Adonia, although she has all along been regarded as one of the favorites.

The first heat was a beauty, as band were all the others of this race. Ban Ando nia got away a little better than the other two. All the way around the three horses were bunched so closely that it seemed they would run a dead heat. In the first half El Praetor and Mollie B. had caught up with the head that Ban Ando had at the start, keeping close up until the last quarter.

Ban Ando then put out a little with El Praetor also pushing up.

When the three came under the wire with their riders playing whip and spur, it took a quick eye to tell which of the three had the best of it. Bon Adonia had her nose in front of El Praetor and El Praetor was putting in his best licks to keep his head in advance of Mollie B.

The heat went to Bon Adonia in 1:35<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> with El Praetor a fine second and Mollie B. just as good a third.

This was the best race of the day, and after the first heat the betting changed in Bon Adonia's favor at considerable odds against the field.

Mollie B. picked up in the second heat, winning it over Ban Adonia by a bare nose. It was a very exciting heat, the three horses being as closely matched as in the first. Ban Adonia was second.

This left the race between Mollie B. and El Praetor, with Ban Adonia the favorite. The two horses left the post nose and nose, never altering their positions until the home stretch, when Ban Adonia forged ahead a little, and when the flag was dropped she had won by a nose.

It was exceedingly close and exciting.

ED. HOPPER AND MAY LILLY

were the only starters in the mile and a quarter dash.

It was a walk over for Hopper. In the pool box he sold five and ten to one, with but very few takers at that.

May Lilly, however, did a great deal better than anybody expected. Her pluck was really a surprise.

She kept up with Hopper, over the mile, but on the quarter he pulled away from her easily, running under the wire three lengths in the

The last on the programme was a mile dash, Statesburg, Nordeck, Castillion, Giessner, Panama and Hiram Wood were the starters. Hiram Wood surprised everybody by taking the lead at the start and holding it easily the first half. The six horses were closely bunched up to the last eighth, when Panama made a spurt, coming under the string first in 1:51, one of the best miles ever run on the track considering its condition yesterday.

After the regular programme, the match race between Colonel Cox and Fellowbroeck for $250 a side, was ran.

renowned rider and the pole as the line started, but Cox got away first. He was two lengths ahead on the first eighth, and although Fellowbrook took up a little of the distance, Cox was an easy winner. The time was 0:52½.

A TARDY OFFICER,

WHO TOOK A MURDERER TO HIS VIC-TORY, AND THEN KEPT HIM AROUND IN THE NEIGH-BORHOOD FOR SEVERAL DAYS UNTIL THE LYNCHERS CAUGHT HIM.

WAYNESBORO, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—The story of the death of John Robinson, Jr., murdered by General Thomas, a negro sixteen years old, because the little five-year-old took some of his chinquapins, has already been told, and also the subsequent lynching of the murderer on Friday last.

THE DELAY.
The officer, Thomas W. Joyner, an uncle of the boy killed, was tardy in bringing the murderer to jail that a mandamus was served on him to serve the negro boy's life.

The answer of Joyner is a very peculiar and altogether an improbable story, and will doubtless give him some trouble at least, as there is considerable comment among the citizens over the conduct of this officer.

The negro was arrested, tried and committed to jail Tuesday. He was kept by Joyner until Friday, when he was lynched.

A PECULIAR ANSWER.
His affidavit and answer is substantially as follows:

After the committal trial I could have taken the defendant to jail on the next train for Waynesboro, that passed in about (3) two hours, but I went to the house of John Robinson, Jr., and took defendant with me there. That night I stayed at a neighbor's house and next day my wife reported that a crowd had been there after the defendant. The next night and day I spent at home untroubled. I sent for my brother the following night to aid me in taking defendant to jail. When near Lawtonville, before day Friday, on our way to the jail, three men stopped us in the road. They pulled the defendant and my brother from the buggy, and took from us our pistol and rifle. We got them, however, to give us our arms back. When they did so they threatened to kill us, and they gave him up. They were armed with guns and pistols and masked. We then went to my brother's house in Lawtonville, and while there some one came and demanded the prisoner again.

THE LYNCHING TAKES PLACE.
When most train time we set out for the depot on foot, going to the track and walking up towards the depot, and when about 400 yards from it, some six or eight men came out from the shadow of an embankment, armed and masked, and took the defendant from us, saying "where intended to take him to jail?" My brother told me "to take the train to Waynesboro and report the matter." That was the last I ever saw of the defendant alive.

He was found later in the day near a creek, by the side of the railroad, tied to a pine sapling, with twelve or fifteen bullet holes in his body. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that "the deceased came to his death at the hands of unknown parties."

GUILTY OF FORGERY.
How a Negro Finished Paying for His Land.

OPPELKA, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—On the 28th instant, Silas Reeves, a negro farmer living in the eastern part of the county, brought his cotton to market and sold it. Out of the proceeds he finished paying for a nice little farm. Not having as much money as he wished, he tore a check out of Mr. D. B. Preston's check book, went to the alliance warehouse, borrowed a pen and ink, and filled out the check for $512, forged Smith T. Meadows' (merchants of this city) name to it, and carried it to the First National bank for payment.

Mr. Corwin Brown, the cashier of that bank, knowing the signatures were not genuine, refused to pay it, and reported the matter to Smith T. Meadows. They swore out a warrant at once before Justice J. T. Gorman for forgery. Silas was arrested, and on a preliminary examination before Justice Gorman was bound over to the circuit court of Lee county in the sum of $1,000 for forgery, which he failed to give, and was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury.

COLONEL NORWOOD'S ILLNESS.
He Has Had to Cancel Several Engagements Because of It.

SAVANNAH, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—Colonel T. M. Norwood is laid up in his country home, near Walthamville, Liberty county, with a severe cold caused by a cold contracted last week while in Atlanta and Macon. Acting under medical advice, he has had to cancel several engagements to address the alliance. It is hoped that he will be able to come to Savannah tomorrow.

The Court Blocked with Business.
ROME, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—The people of the Rome judicial circuit of the superior court are anxious for some relief of the very crowded docket. The legislature will be asked to remedy the present condition.

ANOTHER GEORGIA INVENTION.
An Automatic Stock Feeder Invented by a Baptist Preacher.

WEST POINT, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—Our town is still on the move. Not only do we sell more goods and buy more cotton than any other city of equal population in the state, but we are also in manufacturing industries. We have two large cotton mills, one large lumber mill, an oil mill in operation, a co-operative new oil mill, and an iron works factory.

THE NEW INVENTION.
Besides this a movement is on foot to manufacture sundry mechanical and agricultural articles and machines, chief among which is the Carpenter automatic stock feeder. This machine is a novelty indeed. It feeds stock at any hour or minute desired, having its power of action within itself. It is a practical, labor-saving and economical machine, and is sure to do the work claimed by the inventor.

WHO THE INVENTOR IS.
The inventor is the Rev. J. Howard Carpenter, pastor of the First Baptist church. He has three of his wonderful machines on exhibition at the Piedmont exposition, in agriculture, and will receive a large reward for his labor and skill.

A CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.
Which Will Come Before the General Assembly.

SAVANNAH, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—Mr. Norman, the democrat who was elected to represent Liberty county in the legislature has engaged A. W. W. of Clifton, to represent him in the contest with W. L. James, the negro republican candidate, will make for the seat. James has retained P. M. Meldrum, James is a brother of the negro who took charge of the wilderness worshippers after Bell left them, and who became their second Christ until he was captured and sent to the insane asylum. James claims that he had the majority of 61, but the consolidated returns show a majority for Mr. Norman of 82.

Herrington for Judge.
Hon. Alfred Herrington was unanimously endorsed for Judge of the middle circuit, to succeed the Hon. J. K. Hines, by the county alliance assembled here today. They also passed resolutions requesting the representative and senator of this county and district to use their influence to secure his election.

Fell into a Well.

TWO MEN CAUGHT,

WHO ARE BELIEVED TO BE MISS
BAKER'S MURDERERS.

THEY ARE TRACKED FROM SILLSBORO TO CANTON,
WHERE THEY ARE ARRESTED—THE STORY OF THE CRIME.

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—There is a strong feeling that the two negro tramps, suspected of the murder of Miss Baker yesterday, will be lynched during the night. The people are quiet, but deeply moved, and growly earnest.

The Constant-American today gives the following account of the horrible outrage: "By all odds the foulest and most dastardly crime that ever blackened the fair name of Barlow was committed at SillSBoro yesterday morning. A young woman was waylaid while on her way to her work by a most desperate and brutal man, and after a most desperate struggle, as all signs show, was butchered with a knife, and to make more horrible the crime, her person was outraged while in the throes of death."

Mrs. Sallie Mobbs was the name of the unfortunate woman. She was the daughter of Mr. James Baker, a poor, hard-working farmer. These people had only lived in the community a short while. The last seen of Mrs. Mobbs alive, by her people, was yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, when she left her home to carry the dinner for the hands in the cotton patch. It was her custom to stay behind the other members of the family each morning, and to carry the dinner for her mother and to other things around the house. So after these things were finished yesterday, she took the dinner pail and started to the field.

An hour later her father wondered why she did not come, and growing uneasy, went back to the house to see what the matter was. When he found out she had left the house he began search.

THE BODY FOUND.
Some distance from the house is a small stretch of woodland, and in the road leading up to it the anxious and agonized father discovered pools of blood, and evidence around of a fearful struggle. A bloody track was made in the road where the girl had been dragged. Farther on, in a pine brush, where a tree had been cut down a few days ago. With trembling steps and a tortured mind the father made his way to this pile, and then he saw his worst fears realized. Lying under the tree, the father found the body of his own blood, was the mutilated body of the girl, her throat cut from ear to ear.

The wounds, as described by Dr. Thomas H. Baker, who called to attend the coroner's inquest, are as follows: Wounded in the back of head and back of neck; had one stab that entered the windpipe with small blade of knife, and had three large cuts in the front of the neck, and two larger gashes in the neck; on the left side, running from under the ear to the middle of windpipe, one of them dividing the jugular vein and large carotid artery of the neck; one light cut on finger and slight wounds on arm with knife, and bruises on neck and near hip.

THE ARREST.
Mr. Baker gave the alarm, and soon a number of the neighbors were at the spot. The body was taken to the coroner's office, and the coroner's inquest was held. The facts related above were given in, and a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered. The bodies of the two men were found in the woods near the body of the girl.

As to who committed the crime is shrouded in mystery. Some points to a couple of negro tramps who have been seen coming from the direction of the tragic scene. These tramps were met by the men who had come to the spot. They were called to the spot, and asked where they came from, and the answer was "from Alabama." At the question, "Do you know anything about the murder committed here?" they answered "no." They were then taken to the coroner's office, and the coroner's inquest was held. The facts related above were given in, and a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered. The bodies of the two men were found in the woods near the body of the girl.

TWO MEN CAUGHT,

WHO ARE BELIEVED TO BE MISS
BAKER'S MURDERERS.

THEY ARE TRACKED FROM SILLSBORO TO CANTON,
WHERE THEY ARE ARRESTED—THE
STORY OF THE CRIME.

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—There is a strong feeling that the two negro tramps, suspected of the murder of Miss Baker yesterday, will be lynched during the night. The people are quiet, but deeply moved, and growly earnest.

The Constant-American today gives the following account of the horrible outrage: "By all odds the foulest and most dastardly crime that ever blackened the fair name of Barlow was committed at SillSBoro yesterday morning. A young woman was waylaid while on her way to her work by a most desperate and brutal man, and after a most desperate struggle, as all signs show, was butchered with a knife, and to make more horrible the crime, her person was outraged while in the throes of death."

Mrs. Sallie Mobbs was the name of the unfortunate woman. She was the daughter of Mr. James Baker, a poor, hard-working farmer. These people had only lived in the community a short while. The last seen of Mrs. Mobbs alive, by her people, was yesterday morning, about 7 o'clock, when she left her home to carry the dinner for the hands in the cotton patch. It was her custom to stay behind the other members of the family each morning, and to carry the dinner for her mother and to other things around the house. So after these things were finished yesterday, she took the dinner pail and started to the field.

An hour later her father wondered why she did not come, and growing uneasy, went back to the house to see what the matter was. When he found out she had left the house he began search.

THE BODY FOUND.
Some distance from the house is a small stretch of woodland, and in the road leading up to it the anxious and agonized father discovered pools of blood, and evidence around of a fearful struggle. A bloody track was made in the road where the girl had been dragged. Farther on, in a pine brush, where a tree had been cut down a few days ago. With trembling steps and a tortured mind the father made his way to this pile, and then he saw his worst fears realized. Lying under the tree, the father found the body of his own blood, was the mutilated body of the girl, her throat cut from ear to ear.

The wounds, as described by Dr. Thomas H. Baker, who called to attend the coroner's inquest, are as follows: Wounded in the back of head and back of neck; had one stab that entered the windpipe with small blade of knife, and had three large cuts in the front of the neck, and two larger gashes in the neck; on the left side, running from under the ear to the middle of windpipe, one of them dividing the jugular vein and large carotid artery of the neck; one light cut on finger and slight wounds on arm with knife, and bruises on neck and near hip.

THE ARREST.
Mr. Baker gave the alarm, and soon a number of the neighbors were at the spot. The body was taken to the coroner's office, and the coroner's inquest was held. The facts related above were given in, and a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered. The bodies of the two men were found in the woods near the body of the girl.

THE TWO SAMs

TALK FOR THE WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION

At the First Baptist Church Last Night—A Crowded House Assembled to Hear Them—More Money Needed.

San Jones and Sam Small!

They both spoke last night for temperance and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

The First Baptist church was filled to overflowing. There was not a vacant seat in the house. Even the aisles were crowded, and many were turned away because standing room could not be had.

The first object was to raise money for the receipt of delegates to the national Woman's Christian Temperance Union convention, which meets in Atlanta, November 14th.

The services were opened with prayer by Professor Charles Lane, of the Theological school.

This was followed by the audience singing, at the request of Mr. Jones, two verses of the old hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

After this Mr. Jones, in his own way, introduced his brother evangelist.

"I notice this paper said I was going to preach a great sermon here tonight. Another paper said I was going to deliver a lecture on 'The Plague of Life.' Between 'em they've sorted me out, mired, and as I go in here I don't know how I haven't been to collect my thoughts yet. I've always said that no two people were made alike. They aren't, either. There are differences, for example, between Brother Small and myself. I have a pretty good flow of ideas, and Brother Small has a great flow of language. He's going to speak to you a while now, and by the time he gets through with you I'll have my ideas in shape."

REV. SAM SMALL.

Mr. Small spoke at some length, and in his happiest vein, of the temperance work. Some of his best hits were at the original package decision of the supreme court, and the subsequent action of congress in "fixing it up."

"So that when the drink and smoke cleared away, and they began hunting for a corpse to lay out, there was the original package laid out, and not prohibition. The funeral of prohibition was indefinitely postponed. The process of burying the original package," with a see-saw motion of his arms, "has been like flattening out a feather bed. Mash one side down and the other pulls up, mash both sides and the middle comes up, come down on the middle and both sides go up, but that's going to stop now for we are coming down all over it."

"We have seven states already. We've got 'em safe, too. We've seven up, and the other side's seven down. If I'm not mistaken you'll read in the papers next Wednesday morning that the grand old state of Nebraska has been added to the list."

He illustrated cleverly the attitude of the two great political parties towards the prohibition movement.

"One of them is like the Irishman that got drunk and fell in a hole. Another man called to some passers-by to come help pull the Irishman out. 'How deep is he in?' they asked. 'Up to his ankles. Come quick!' If he's just in to his ankles why don't he walk out? 'How the devil can he walk out when he fell in head first?'"

"The other party is like the drunk man that stopped Brother Jones down here on Whitehall street. He wanted to know which was the opposite side of the street. 'Why, that's the other side,' said brother Jones, pointing across the street. 'Look here,' said the man, 'I don't want to make a fool of myself about this thing.' 'Why,' said brother Jones, 'that's the matter. That's the opposite side of the street, over there.' 'Well, I was over there just now and a fellow told me it was on this side. The republican party reminds me of a fellow always hunting for the opposite side of the street, and all you can see of the democratic party on that issue are two big feet sticking up, one labeled 'anti-suffrage' and the other 'personal liberty.'"

"As the old woman said in the play, 'It's the difference between high-cock-a-roon and low-cock-a-roon.' The democratic party is against it, and the republicans are lying about it."

"I feel on this question like the darkey that took to the woods. The preacher said one day that there were only two roads—the straight and narrow path to hell and the broad and easy road that led to destruction. 'Hold on,' said the darkey in the congregation. 'Isthen the only way?'"

"Yesser," said the preacher. "Isthen the only way?"

"Isthen the only way?"

"Isthen the only way?"

"Isthen the only way?"

"Isthen the only way?"

THAT SENSATION.

AN ADVERTISEMENT IN YESTERDAY'S CONSTITUTION.

Gives a Stir—Captain Sneed and Colonel Calhoun Both Talk About It—The Orderly Sergeant's Mistake.

Some talk was created on the streets yesterday by the publication of what proved to be groundless statements of further developments in the recent military sensation.

The report was circulated that the Gate City veteran, or rather Captain Sneed, the captain of the company, had refused to obey the order of Lieutenant Colonel Calhoun suspending him from command of the Guard.

This report was based upon a notice which appeared in yesterday's CONSTITUTION. This notice was signed "A. C. Sneed, Captain Commanding," and was printed for the purpose of calling the members of the Guard together at a banquet last night.

Upon top of this rumor about the meeting of the captain of the Guard was a further rumor to the effect that the action of Captain Sneed and his company, if the company sanctioned it, was due to the belief that Colonel Calhoun was not colonel of the Fourth Georgia battalion.

In other words, the statement was made that Colonel Calhoun had not been regularly elected to his rank, and that on that account Captain Sneed had ignored his order directing him (Sneed's) suspension from command until after the investigation of certain charges against him by a court martial.

GROUNDLESS RUMORS.

But as stated in the opening, these rumors and statements, when sifted down, are utterly without foundation—not at all warranted by the facts.

In the first place, Colonel Calhoun is colonel of the Fourth Georgia battalion. He has his commission from the governor, and there is no sort of doubt about his being the unanimous choice of the officers of the companies composing the battalion.

As Colonel Calhoun, himself, puts it, "It is the very child's talk" to attack his title or authority to the rank of lieutenant colonel of the Fourth battalion.

In the second place, Captain Sneed is emphatic in the statement that there was not the least intention on his part to disobey Colonel Calhoun's order, neither does he or any member of his company dispute or even in the slightest degree question Colonel Calhoun's authority or his title to the rank he holds.

Here is just the situation, the foundation for all the wild talk of yesterday.

The public is already fully acquainted with the order of Colonel Calhoun suspending Captain Sneed from the command of the Gate City Guard, with three other members of the company, by a court martial, which is to be held on the 3d of December next.

A MISCHIEVOUS ADVERTISEMENT.

Yesterday morning there appeared in THE CONSTITUTION an advertisement calling all the members of the Guard to meet at their armory last night to participate in a banquet in honor of their victory at the exposition last week.

This advertisement was signed "A. C. Sneed, Captain Commanding," and by the orderly sergeant of the company. Captain Sneed's name appeared in large black type, conspicuous above the balance of the notice.

It might have appeared from this notice that Captain Sneed refused to consider himself suspended from command of the Guard, according to Colonel Calhoun's order.

A MISCHIEVOUS ADVERTISEMENT, called at the armory last night and there the following conversation was made by Captain Sneed and other members of the company who had had a hand in the publication of the sensational advertisement.

CAPTAIN SNEED TALKS.

"It was just one of those unfortunate mistakes that will happen," said Captain Sneed. "I'm not of my own here ever had the least intention to disobey Colonel Calhoun's orders, even so much as in thought, much less in such a glaring manner as the printed notice would indicate."

"It occurred this way. You see we were to have a banquet at the armory last night, (Wednesday) but it was postponed until tonight, as you see."

"Well, when we postponed it, after last night's armory Wednesday night, I and several others continued to talk about our proposed frolic. We were walking down the street when I happened to think that it would be a good idea to publish a notice in the paper to let the boys know what was going on tonight."

"HOW THE MISTAKE OCCURRED."

"Turning to the first sergeant of the company, who was in the party, I suggested that he go up to THE CONSTITUTION office and insert a proper notice in a conspicuous place. He did so, and, as he has been accustomed to doing all along, signed my name to the advertisement as well as his own. This, you understand is the regular way such notices are published—the military form. I never thought about cautioning the sergeant about omitting my name and substituting the first lieutenant's instead."

"So that's the way it all came about. I am very sorry that such an unfortunate mistake should have occurred. It not only put us in a false position, but, doubtless, also caused Colonel Calhoun some embarrassment when he saw the notice. Since the matter has taken such a turn as it has, I shall at once give Colonel Calhoun my written explanation of the unfortunate affair."

NEVER QUESTIONED COLONEL CALHOUN'S AUTHORITY.

"As to Colonel Calhoun's valid election to that rank, that question never entered my mind, and I never had the least idea of calling it into question."

"The raising of that point, as printed this afternoon, does the company a great injustice. It does me wrong and we are made by it to appear in the attitude of resisting his authority, when there was no possible ground for such a publication."

To a reporter Colonel Calhoun said: "I have little to say for publication. It is a very unfortunate affair, and I think it should be kept out of print until the proper time."

"As to the notice, when I saw it in THE CONSTITUTION this morning I was very much surprised. I have had no personal feeling in the matter at all, except that of regret. I am and always have been on the friendliest terms with the Guard, and it was a very unpleasant task for me to prepare the specifications against the gentlemen interested, in compliance with my orders from the adjutant general."

"This is a serious matter. I have already determined to amend my order, unless there is a satisfactory explanation of the notice which was printed this morning. It has the appearance of a direct defiance of my order, and unless it is explained, as I said, I shall embody in my order an additional specification charging Captain Sneed with disobeying orders. This would make the situation much more serious than it now is."

RESENSATIONAL REPORTS CONDEMNED.

Colonel Calhoun thought the notice as published was very injurious to the Guard, and that the report published yesterday afternoon attacking the validity of his rank as colonel of the battalion was also calculated to put the company in a wrong light before the public.

Colonel Calhoun was the unanimous choice as lieutenant colonel of the Fourth battalion, and the fact that he holds a commission from the governor and also that the battalion has formally accepted him and has repeatedly turned out at his command, puts any question of his authority beyond doubt.

AN INVITATION.

At the banquet of the Guard last night, the company decided to invite the Veterans, Zouaves, of Elizabeth, to be their guests as they passed through Atlanta on their way to Mardi Gras next February.

General Drake is the commander of the Zouaves, between whom and the Guard a strong friendship has existed for a long time.

ADJUTANT GENERAL KELL Gives His Opinion About the Action of Captain Sneed.

GRIFITH, Ga., October 30.—[Special.]—In obedience to a telegram THE CONSTITUTION representative visited Adjutant General Kell at his residence in Sunnyside tonight to get his views on the defiant action of the Gate City Guard. After repeated rapping the general appeared and asked my mission.

"I came to see what you were going to do about the defiance of 'dis Grit City' Guard of your order suspending Captain Sneed."

"Colonel Calhoun commanded the battalion," was his reply. "When I get his report it may add another charge to be placed before a court martial. I saw the notice of the call to the Guard in today's CONSTITUTION, signed by A. C. Sneed as captain commanding, which is in open defiance of military law, as he is suspended, and had no right to sign such a call as he did. Captain Sneed is so much of a soldier not to know his duty. I was surprised, upon seeing the order signed by him in today's CONSTITUTION. When an officer is under arrest or suspended, he has no right to command, and Sneed is acting in open defiance of military law, and if he were in service during war he would be subject to punishment by death for insubordination. As a citizen soldier nothing of this kind can be done, of course, but Captain Sneed is an officer of note in the state, and ought to know the consequences attending such conduct—that is an expulsion from service by sentence of court martial. I think this is all I need say on the subject for the present. I was absent from Atlanta today, attending the funeral of my beloved pastor, Rev. Mr. Dow, at Griffin, else I would have been better prepared, perhaps, to answer your questions."

THE RALLY TONIGHT.

JOHN G. CARLISLE SENDS A MESSAGE TO COLONEL LIVINGSTON.

Which Might Be Taken as a Text in the Meeting Tonight—Eloquent Speakers Will Be on Hand.

Every democrat in Fulton county who is able to be there, should be present at the courthouse tonight.

It must be shown not only that Fulton county is democratic yet, but that it is actively and overwhelmingly democratic!

The impression that seems to prevail in the minds of some people outside that there is an apathy among the democrats of Fulton county concerning the race for congress, must be swept out of memory in this rally tonight.

Don't be fooled into thinking the Republicans are doing nothing.

Every night Boss Buck and other republicans are addressing crowds of negroes in different parts of the city. Tuesday a meeting was held at Mystic hall, Wednesday one was held at Schell's, and last night they were actively at work in other wards.

Buck is after the negroes, and is urging them to vote. The republicans claim they own the negroes and are going to vote them solid for Haight.

Judge Haight and his friends say they have hopes of carrying Fulton county.

Certainly the democracy will not permit Fulton to be disgraced by a republican victory.

Every vote may count. Prepare to cast your ballot for LIVINGSTON for congress, and come out to the courthouse meeting tonight.

A LETTER FROM SENATOR CARLISLE.

Here is a message that might serve as a text for the occasion:

COVINGTON, Ky., October 28.—Your telegram was not received, and I saw it for the first time in The Nashville American.

"OF COURSE, I WILL DENOUNCE THE LETTER AS YOUR REQUEST," "J. G. CARLISLE."

That explains itself.

The letter referred to was the one written by John Livingston, of New York.

Senator Carlisle used this letter in one or more speeches as genuine.

As soon as Colonel Livingston's explanation reached him he was ready to denounce the New York letter as a forgery and a libel!

So goes.

Come out tonight!

Colonel Livingston will speak.

Colonel N. J. Hammond and Captain W. H. Hulsey have accepted the invitation of the committee and will address the meeting.

Mr. Albert Cox, Mr. Hoke Smith, Mr. W. C. Glenn, Mr. John H. Goodwin, Mr. Armon Murphy, and others, will make short talks for the democratic nominee.

TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Patrolman Jesse Jordan recovers damages.

That is the amount recovered by Patrolman Jesse Jordan, of the police department, yesterday in the city court.

It will be remembered that Patrolman Jordan was knocked down by a telephone pole on North Pryor street, near the Young Men's Christian Association building, more than a year ago.

He was just going on duty and with a fellow policeman was passing the pole when it suddenly fell, striking him on the head and knocking him senseless. He sustained serious injuries from the accident, and brought suit against the telephone company.

Mr. R. J. Jordan represented the plaintiff, and Messrs. Hoke & Burton Smith the defendants in the case. The jury returned a verdict for $2,000 damages.

Insurance Against Disease.

In certain instances there have been arrangements made between a physician and the head of a family that a fixed amount should be paid for each day the various members of the family continued in good health. But should sickness occur, the physician's usual stipend was discontinued. Such an agreement is founded on common sense, for we don't want to be made well, we want to be kept well. There is a great deal of unnecessary sickness resulting from a want of careful attention to bodily requirements. Keep the blood pure, keep the functional habits of the body regular, counteract the effects of exposure by always having a bottle of Dr. John Bull's Sarsaparilla in the household and using it in anticipation of an attack of illness or when the very first symptoms are manifest. Disease will not trouble you if you will heed this good advice. It is an excellent preventive of disease and decay, as well as a safe cure.—Marion Banner.

Hearts are now among the most popular pendents for men, and Messrs. Maier & Berkeley have just received a full line in both silver and gold. Call and see them. 93 Whitehall street.

A SECOND NON-SUIT.

The Rebb Case Falls a Second Time in the City Court.

The case of C. A. Rebb against the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway Company for $25,000, which has occupied the time of the city court for the present week, was, on yesterday, non-suited on motion of defendant's counsel.

This case arose out of an accident in the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia railway yard, by which young Rebb lost his leg.

This is the second victory for the company, the case having been tried before and resulting in a non-suit.

The plaintiff was represented by Hoke and Bacon, and the defendant company was represented by Bacon & Rutherford, and Dorsey & Howell.

THEY LEFT LAST NIGHT.

The Florence, Ala., party in Chattanooga today.

The "Pickwick" left Atlanta last night over the East Tennessee for Chattanooga.

That is the special Pullman car in which Captain Hugh Colquhoun and his Florence, Ala., party are traveling.

They reach Chattanooga early this morning and remain over night.

During their stay in Atlanta yesterday the party were royally entertained by their Atlanta friends.

They were driven over the city and to the exposition grounds, visiting all the points of interest.

The Pickwick reaches Florence on Saturday, having been on the road since October 1st, exactly one month.

Clothing for all mankind. The true American spirit is to give everybody credit for the cleverness they show. The superiority of our Tailoring Department entitles us to extra courtesy. It is generally conceded. The best Suits worn in Atlanta are those that come out of our workrooms. No mistaking the character of our products. Evidences stare you in the face. Every day we are winning new customers. Each purchase means satisfaction and dollar-saving for you. Those two items are surely worth your consideration.

If you want good looks and substantial wear, get an all-wool suit; not what merely seems to be all wool—bits and shreds of useless wool carded with cotton and made to pass muster—but straight-out pure wool through and through. It's easy to get such without a heavy drain on your purse. Here they are: $10, $12.50, $15, $16.50, $17.50, $18.

Good friend—you of limited means and scant faith in a Clothier's advertisement—this is important news to you. There's rich economy in each item.

Nine prophets out of ten would predict this week an Overcoat rush. Young men on the watch for elegance are interested in our styles. They are exactly right in length, shapely backs, lapped seams, inlaid velvet collars—nothing is missed. There isn't a touch of nobbiness but they have it, and to these we add tailoring that twice the money wouldn't procure except here.

We are selling rapidly for Fall and Winter. It is not possible to make a mistake, whichever you buy. None but are far beyond what anybody expects for any such money.

SOCIETY'S NEWS.

THE ELEGANT RECEPTION GIVEN BY MRS. W. R. HAMMOND.

Society Events of Interest in Atlanta and Georgia—Georgians About Atlantians and Their Guests.

A very elegant reception was that given by Mrs. William Hammond at her handsome mansion yesterday afternoon and evening.

In the afternoon the married ladies were invited. The evening reception was given in honor of Miss Annie Tamm, Miss Adelaide Adair and Mr. Louis Rawson, and the guests were the young ladies and gentlemen of society.

The entire house was thrown open, brilliantly illuminated and richly adorned with flowers and tropical plants and mosses. The drawing room mantels were banked with growing palms, and many East India palms in ornamental jars showed their graceful leaves in the alcoves and bay windows. The white curtains were partly covered by dainty traceries of English ivy. The chandeliers were hung with amethysts, and many bowls and vases of brilliant chrysanthemums were placed here and there.

The stairway was hung with silvery gray moss and decorated in Japanese effect with palm leaves. The alcoves in the corridors were hung with moss and amethysts, and used for the serving of coffee and lemonade. All of the rooms were adorned in the same way with rich tropical plants and mosses, some splendid large-leaved caladiums being among the most noticeable and beautiful plants.

The dining room was entirely in pink and white. The center table was almost covered with flowers and roses and tulips arranged in pink and white beds, going diagonally across the table, the lights were pink and white candles in silver candelabra. The small tables had bowls of silver and white roses. While the mantel and buffet were adorned with the same queenly flowers. The refreshments were dainty and delicious.

Mrs. Hammond's costume was a heavy corded white faille silk, most artistically trimmed. Those who assisted her in receiving were, with an account of their costumes, the following:

Mrs. Henry Jackson wore a handsome tan brocade en train.

Mrs. A. D. Adair's costume was of heliotrope silk, with a covering of novelty lace. Her ornaments were diamonds and flowers.

Mrs. T. P. Westmoreland wore a black velvet evening costume trimmed with handsome lace. Mrs. Henry Johnson wore a costume of pink silk, with draping of pink and gold net.

Mrs. E. E. Rawson, black silk, duchesse lace, diamonds.

Mrs. Dr. Rankin, combination silk of a different shade of old rose.

Mrs. E. W. Marsh, lovely costume black net and lace.

Mrs. J. G. Oglesby, a very handsome combination suit of old rose.

Mrs. Howard Van Epps, an elegant gown of black and gold.

Mrs. L. J. Hill, a very elegant combination of blue and gold.

Mrs. C. A. Collier, a handsome black brocade silk, with gold lace.

Mrs. John D. Ray, handsome blue velvet, trimmed with jet.

Mrs. E. P. Chamberlin, a wine brocade silk, trimmed with jet.

Miss Adair wore a Paris gown of pale pink crepe de Chine, embellished with forget-me-nots, exquisitely simple and becoming.

Miss Crane, a dainty costume of white and gold. Miss Annie Tamm, a handsome gown of white with Swiss embroidery.

Miss Jackson, a picturesque gown of dotted crepe de Chine, ornamented with rare lace and pale-green ribbons.

Miss Marsh an elegant embroidered white mousseline de soie with bodice of satin brocade. The guests were many, and the affair was without doubt one of the most elegant Atlanta society has known.

At the residence of Mr. G. S. W. Parker, near Creswell, this county, father of the bride, Rev. Mr. Ingram officiating, Mr. Paul Robinson of Atlanta, was married to Miss Annie Parker, of Atlanta, a most lovely young lady. The groom is a bookkeeper for a wholesale firm in Atlanta, and is appreciated by them for his correct habits.

The lady whom Mr. Robinson adds to Atlanta's population, is well fitted to shine in any society or society. Sweet, amiable and cultured, Mr. Robinson is to be congratulated on his success in winning her for his companion.

The happy couple were the recipients of numerous and handsome presents from friends. They left on the 9 o'clock train for Atlanta, their future home.

Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Houston street, Miss Flora Shaw gave, to a few of her friends, an impromptu dance. Elegant refreshments were served, and with music and dancing, the evening passed most pleasantly. Those present were: Misses Mary and David, Sully, Cohen, of Athens; Ethel Harris, Lizette Lovejoy, Nora and Josie Earnest, Irene Lovejoy, Messrs. Ed. Vass, Peyton Douglas, Odis Smith, Jim Powers, Howell Peoples, Tom Conklin, Walter Kikkiparick, Dick Hill and Harry Lewis.

This evening Miss Harwood and Miss Frances Harwood will entertain their friends in their elegant home on Peachtree at a delightful tea.

The affair will be a small one, and all those fortunate enough to be invited are congratulating themselves, as the Misses Harwood have the reputation of giving perfectly charming entertainments.

A few days since Mr. L. Belland, formerly an efficient member of the Opelika police force, and lately a conductor on the Atlanta and West Point railroad, and Miss Ella F.ynn, a beautiful and accomplished young lady of Ladoga, Ga., were married. They will make Atlanta their future home.

Miss Hattie Callahan, of West Point, is in the city. Miss Callahan is one of the editors of the West Point Press, in which paper she is winning many journalistic honors. Her many friends here are delighted to see her.

Misses Beatie Cawwell, of Chattanooga, and Daisy Talmage, of Macon, are the guests of the Misses Raleigh of this city. They are both very lovely and accomplished young ladies.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., October 30.—[Special].—Mr. Warren Hill Parker, of this city, and Miss Alice May Lawson were married in St. Paul, Minn., a few days since.

Miss Jo Nixon, one of Chattanooga's popular young ladies, is spending a few days in Atlanta, the guest of Mrs. A. L. T. on Luckie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemme. Alston have returned from a trip through the principal southern cities, and are now stopping at the Arlington.

The usual Friday talk on physical culture will be omitted this week, but will be given early next week. Further notice will be given.

Miss Campbell, daughter of Governor Campbell, of Ohio, will be the guest of Miss Marsh some time during the coming month.

Mrs. Hattie Callahan, the pretty and intellectual editor of the West Point Press, is visiting the Piedmont exposition.

Miss Wells, who has been visiting Miss Annie Spear of this city, has returned to her home in Chattanooga.

Mrs. A. E. Cox, of Forest Hill, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William A. Wright, 181 Capitol avenue.

Mr. Mike Currin, and his accomplished young daughter of Rome, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. and Mrs. Claude Langston, of Rome, spent several days at the exposition this week.

Mrs. S. J. Wright, of Rome, was among the visitors at the exposition this week.

Mrs. John D. Ray, from Newman, Ga., is visiting Mrs. William Hammond, of this city.

Miss Alice Pugh, of Augusta, is visiting Miss Mamie Walker, 175 Crew street.

MISS MONTREARD, of Augusta, is visiting on West Fair street.

MILLBERRYVILLE, Ga., October 30.—[Special].—The marriage of Miss Bessie Moore, of this city, to Mr. Lewis Rhodes, of Macon, at the Methodist church here was the first event of the kind this season. The church was exquisitely decorated with ferns and flowers, while the high standing of the contracting parties brought out a crowd of friends and admirers that filled the church to its full capacity. There were 20 attendants. At 12:30 the cashers, Messrs. Wooten and Conn, and Fowler and Brantley, led the way to the chancel railing, taking positions on the right and left. The happy couple followed, taking their place in front of the altar, and in a beautiful ceremony Rev. White pronounced them man and wife. As soon as the ceremony was over, the party left by the Georgia road for point of interest in Florida. Mr. Rhodes is a prominent young railroad of the central city and is a gentleman of deserved popularity. Miss Bessie is the daughter of Editor J. N. Moore, of the Union-Recorder, and is a young lady of beauty of person and character.

On Tuesday night, at the residence of Mr. Peter J. Cline, Mr. Terrence Treanor and Miss Lura Turk were united in marriage. Father Kennedy, of the Catholic church, officiating. Mr. Treanor is a prominent young merchant of this city and is esteemed by all who know him, while Miss Turk is a young lady of grace and beauty and is a social favorite.

On Wednesday night, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Charles Leonard, of Macon, and Miss Jessie Thomson were joined in the holy bonds. Rev. J. D. Chapman officiating.

A hop at the Oconee house and a "spider web" party at the mansion will close the social week on Friday night, and both events promise to be largely attended.

A good many young ladies are visiting the city at present, and the social world here has been in a state of unusual activity.

CATE SPRING, Ga., October 30.—[Last night, the marriage of Mr. H. H. Dean, of Rome, Ga., to Miss Stella Corput, of this place, took place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Henden, D.D., of Rome. The attendants were: Messrs. Jesse Corput, Julia Dean, Annie Zallara, Ione Sparks, Mary Fleming and Annie Furman, Messrs. Frank Dean, Joe Morton, Will West, Harry Young, George Chalmers and William White. The attendants were from Rome, Ga., and Birmingham, Ala.

WARRENTON, Ga., October 30.—[Special].—On the 28th instant a number of relatives and friends assembled at the home of the bride's father, Mr. D. M. Cason, near Warrenton, to witness the union of Mr. J. Thomas Long and Miss Olivia Cason.

The parlors were artistically decorated with flowers. At 10 o'clock the "Wedding March" was commenced by the skillful hand of Mrs. Cody, of Jewell's, then the bridal party entered. First came Mr. J. Newt Cason, of Atlanta, with Miss Kate Farmer, of Warrenton, followed by Mr. J. J. Cason, of Jewell's, and Miss Ida Cason, of Jewell's; next Mr. Claude Cason with Miss Eliza Martin, of Sanderville, followed by Mr. T. Smith, of Sanderville, and Miss Robie Picher, of Warrenton; then Mr. Robert Bowen entered with Miss Pearl Cason from Jewell's; next Mr. Charlie Cason and Miss Jessie Turk, followed by Mr. Jamie Cason and Miss Anna Beazley, Mr. Green Dugan and Miss Mattie Cason. There was an elegant supper served on Monday evening, and Tuesday morning after the marriage the bride and groom left on the train for Atlanta to attend the grand exposition. The presents were numerous and handsome.

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., October 28.—[Special].—The marriage of Mr. Ed. Jordan, of Macon, Ga., and Miss Ella Winn, daughter of Mrs. and Colonel Samuel J. Winn, of this city, their beautiful residence in the presence of the family and relatives, Rev. W. M. Winn, of Hartwell, officiating, was an occasion of much interest. Miss Ella is the only surviving daughter of Colonel Winn, his other, Mrs. C. H. Brand, having departed this life a few short weeks ago. She is a sister to Col. C. V. Winn, of Atlanta, and a niece of Hon. Thomas E. Winn, and a granddaughter of Major R. D. Winn, one of the old landmarks and original settlers of Gwinnett, with his wife, was present. She is noted for her sweet disposition and possesses a character for loveliness and purity unequalled. Mr. Jordan is a very promising young man of steady habits and unimpeachable character. Both are handsome and happy, and as they left on the morning train many remained behind bidding them God-speed to their future destiny.

RICHMOND, Va., October 29.—Mr. Harry L. Hyndman, a successful young manufacturer of Cincinnati, and Miss Lulu A. Meade, an accomplished young lady of this city, were married at St. Patrick's church today. The bride was a walking suit of blue cloth, with hat, gloves and shoes to match. Her sister, Miss Katie Meade, was the maid of honor and wore a handsome gown of lavender china silk. Mr. Louis O. Wendelberg was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hyndman left at once for Cincinnati.

AMERSTOWN, Ga., October 30.—[Special].—One of the most notable weddings in American society will occur on next Wednesday noon at the residence of Hon. B. F. Hollis, on Church street, when Mr. Frank Lanier, Jr., of the most prominent young men of the city, will marry Miss Mattie, the eldest daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Hollis. Mr. Lanier, who comes of the prominent family of that name at West Point, Ga., though recently removed here, has gone to the very front in both society and business, while Miss Hollis has the prestige of no less a distinguished family than the several charming ladies who constitute her relatives on both sides of her family.

On next Tuesday evening the American Social Athletic club will tender a reception to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawkins, two of the most popular members, who have recently returned from an extended bridal tour of England and the continent.
